

The New Immigrants

DIRECTIONS: As you read parts of 4.1 (189-193) in your textbook or Pages 56-58 of your blue workbook and learn about people who immigrated to the United States in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, write the answers to the questions below.

DUE Friday, 9/18.

Immigrants From...	What were some of the countries they came from?	What reasons did they often have for leaving their homeland? PUSH	What reasons did they have for coming to the United States? PULL	Where did they often enter the United States?
Southern & Eastern Europe				☐ Ellis Island ☐ Angel Island ☐ Southeastern U.S. ☐ Southwestern U.S.
Asia				☐ Ellis Island ☐ Angel Island ☐ Southeastern U.S. ☐ Southwestern U.S.
West Indies and Mexico				☐ Ellis Island ☐ Angel Island ☐ Southeastern U.S. ☐ Southwestern U.S.

Push/ Pull review:

A push is something _____ in your homeland. A pull is something _____ in the United States.

Consider this chart; put the events in this timeline in the PUSH category or PULL category in the table below:

Immigration and US and World Events

1	1845-1849	Potato famine in Ireland
2	1846	Crop failures in Germany and Holland
3	1848	Gold is discovered in California
4	1848	Germany experiences severe depression and unemployment
5	1862	The Homestead Act offers free land to citizens and to immigrants who intend to become citizens
6	1865	Construction begins on the transcontinental railroad
7	1870-1914	Second Industrial Revolution in the United States
8	1880-1914	Religious persecution of Jews in Eastern Europe
8	1900-1920	Overpopulation in Southern and Eastern European farms
10	1905-1906	Economic problems, an expanding population, and epidemics in Italy
11	1910-1920	Revolution in Mexico
12	1917	Russian Revolution

PUSH	PULL