

Clashes on the Prairie Note Guide

Slide	Questions
Whenever possible, Native people prefer to be called by their specific tribal name. In the United States, Native American has been widely used but is falling out of favor with some groups, and the terms American Indian or Indigenous American are preferred by many Native people. So the west begins to be settled.. BUT... 	1. Brainstorm: Why is it important for the government to connect From the East to the West?
The Horse and the Buffalo   	2. Why are the horse and the buffalo central to the traditional American Indian way of life?
Without the Buffalo... •What is their life like? What will they be missing? •What does the U.S. Government want them to do? ★ This is an important vocabulary word/concept •How do they feel about this? • Are they going to just go along with this peacefully? • What do you think happens? 	3. What are the lives of American Indians like without the buffalo? What will they be missing? How do they feel about this?
How does the government respond to the American Indian resistance? • 1887: The Dawes Act ◦ What does it say? ◦ Big thing to understand, what is the government trying to encourage American Indians to do/believe? ◦ What other benefit does the government get? • Indian Boarding Schools ◦ Watch this video about the experience of Zitkala-Sa (A Walk in Two Worlds) ◦ As you watch the video please take note of things done to the students that would make it more difficult for them to learn their traditional culture.  ★ Considering 3 things (the killing of the buffalo, the Dawes Act and Indian boarding schools), what is the U.S. government trying to get American Indians to do? ★ Again, this is an important vocabulary word/concept	4. What does the Dawes Act do? What benefits does the government get from the act?

How does the government respond to the American Indian resistance?

- 1887, The Dawes Act

- What does it say?
- Big thing to understand, what is the government trying to encourage American Indians to do/be?
- What other benefit does the government get?

- Indian Boarding Schools

- Watch this video about the experience of Zitkala-Sa (a link in the sidebar)

- As you watch the video please take note of things done to the students that would make it more difficult for them to learn their traditional culture.

- Considering 3 things (the killing of the buffalo, the Dawes Act and Indian boarding schools), what is the U.S. government trying to get American Indians to do?
- Again, this is an important vocabulary word/concept

What were some things done to the students that made it more difficult for them to learn their traditional culture?

What was the U.S. government trying to get American Indians to do?

The legacy of the clashes on the prairie...

- The "end" of American Indian (the Indian Wars) resistance

- Dec 28, 1890, The Battle of Wounded Knee
 - Primary source reading from Dick Ford Bear
 - Reenactment from the movie Hallelujah
- Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show Clip
 - How do they portray The Battle of Wounded Knee?

- After watching both clips, what are the biggest differences between what really occurred and how it was portrayed to most Americans?
- How do Buffalo Bill's Wild West Shows create the stereotype of an American Indian?

5. What event marked the end of the Indian Wars?

What was the Battle of Wounded Knee?

What is the most significant difference between what really occurred and how it was portrayed in Buffalo Bill's Wild West Shows?

What stereotype of American Indians does Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show create?