Take notes on Hayes, Garfield, and Arthur:

The Do-Nothing Presidents

Civil service reform makes GRADUAL progress

- 1st president to turn away from patronage
- Appointed qualified independents (broke up NYC's customhouse)
- Enraged Republican Party (Stalwarts v. Reformers)

- Republicans nominate Garfield (reformer) for Pres and Arthur (stalwart) for VP
- Garfield still enraged Reps as he gave reformers most of the patronage jobs
- 7.2.81: Shot by Charles Guiteau to get Arthur in office

- Despite Stalwart ties he turned reformer when he was Pres
- PENDLETON CIVIL SERVICE ACT (1883): bipartisan group to make appointments to fed. jobs through merit system (examination)
